CLASSES

modern facilities and

Members of the 1971 pep band are Seniors Richard Heckman and Dennis Klipple on trumpet, Dale Reinert on sax, Ralph Brodt III on trombone, and Brian Schaffer on drums, Juniors are Scott Brodt on clarinet and Tom Franczak III on the tuba.

The Pep Band was formed by the request of Mr. Gary Thorne to play at home basketball games in order to boost team spirit and student enthusiasm. Most of their songs are Dixieland jazz, but because of student demand they began playing songs such as The Schaffer Beer Jingle, The Fight Song, Hurrah for the Stumper, and the Stripper. Their enthusiasm added much to the spirit, so they also began playing at the pep assemblies held in school.

SENIOR PLAY

Seniors Present Murder Mystery

Our class of 1971 presented its senior class play, The Whole Truth, on November 20-21. The cast of The Whole Truth practiced for long hours. At first it seemed as though no one would be able to learn his lines. But the night of the production, the actors and actresses showed their skill. The success of the play lay in the fact that the players gave their lines personal twists and managed to turn a murder mystery into a lighthearted comedy. Mrs. Prentiss Halladay worked hard with her thespians, but the extra sparkle appeared after the seniors got on stage.

The parties that followed each production celebrated the play's success. The class of 1971 presented a play that will never be forgotten.

The "who-dun-it" story concerned the murder of a young actress with whom Lewis Paulton had been known to have contact. Every clue pointed to Lewis, but the audience knew that it was really Hugh Carliss who did it. Through careful calculation Brett, the police inspector discovered who the murderer was and captured him in time to save Brenda, Paulton's beautiful young wife.

ABOVE: Brett and Miss Briggs arrive in time to rescue Brenda and to capture Hugh.

TOP: Jill and Vera voice their envy of their friend, Brenda Paulton, the wife of a well-known movie producer. BOTTOM: Lewis tells Brenda about Marion's murder and how it involves him.

Knowing that she has valuable information, Hugh kills Deenie by strangling her with a stocking.

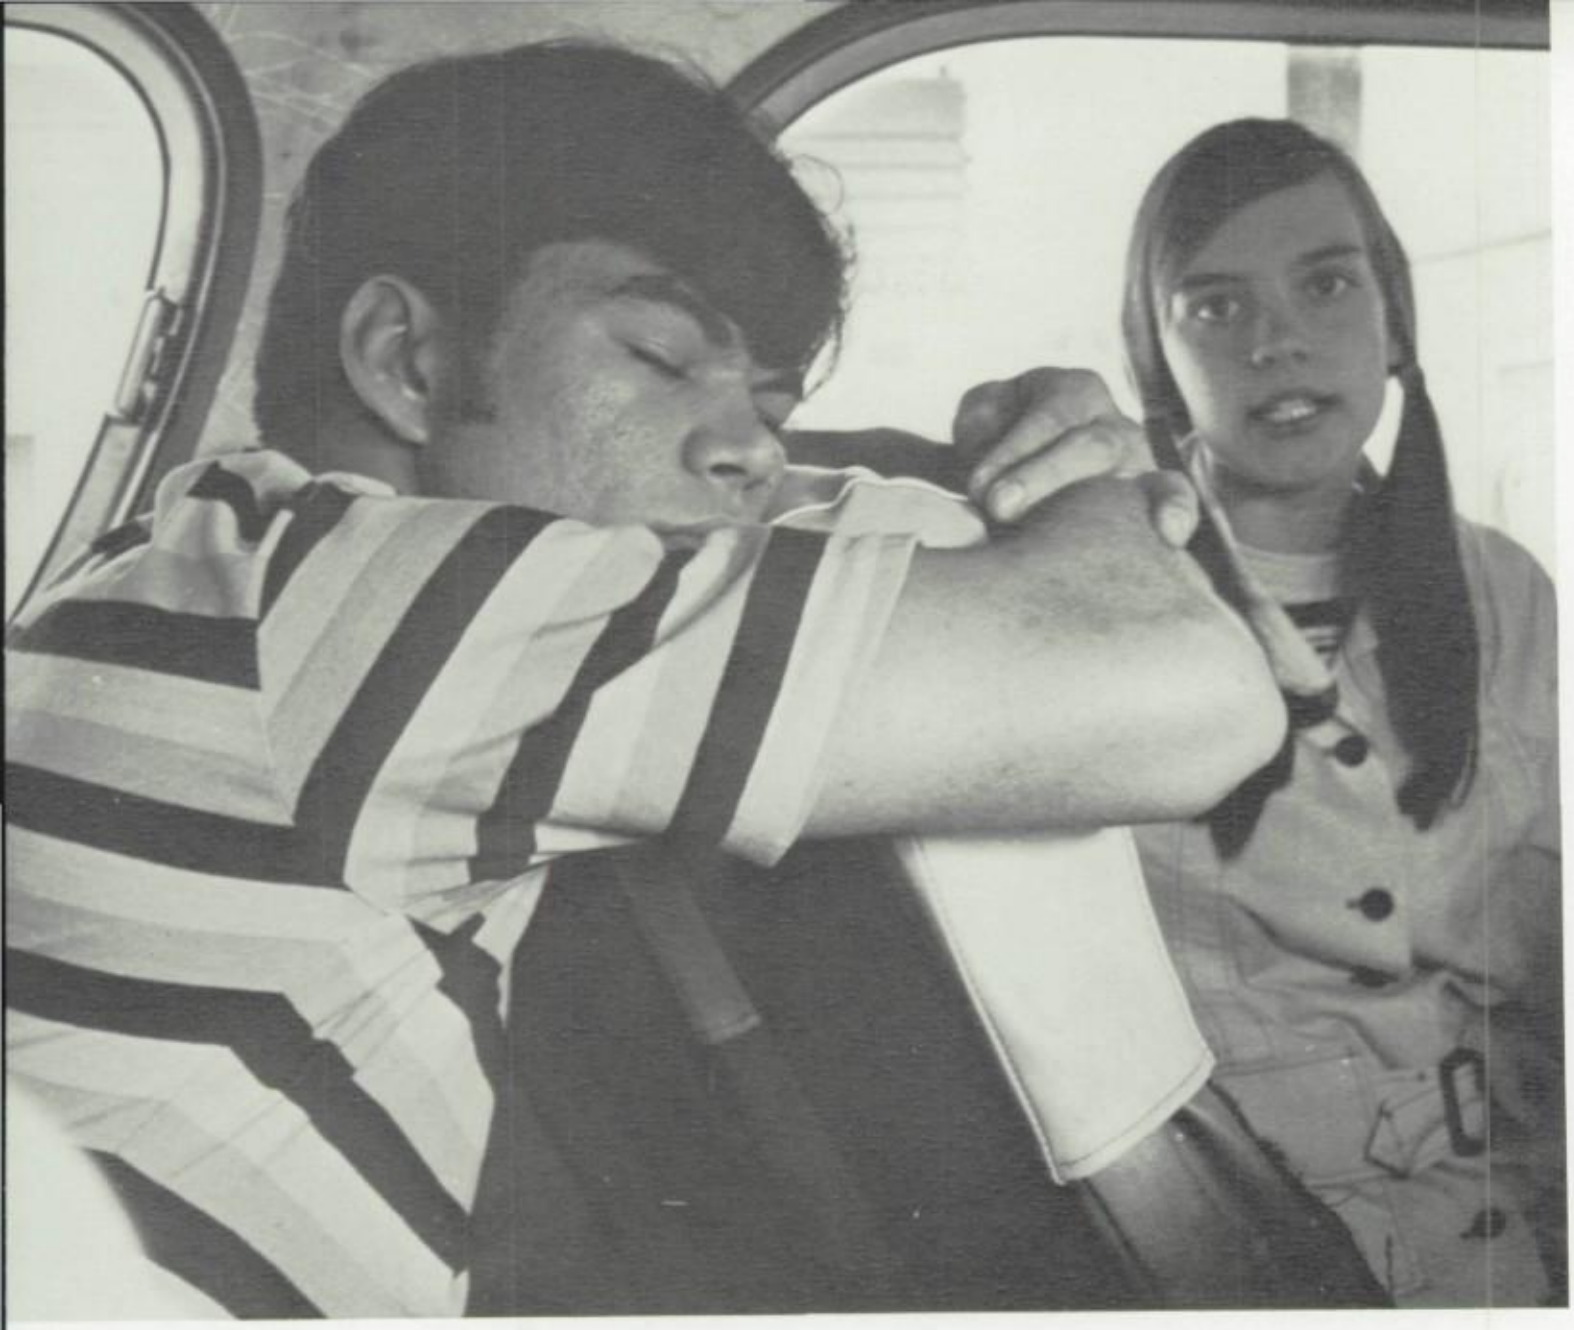
CLASS TRIP

Ocean City Site Of '71 Class Trip

Seniors voted to visit Ocean City for their class trip on June 15, 1971. The trip was planned and organized by a special committee under the direction of Mrs. Dyvonne Nevil.

Early on the morning of the long anticipated trip, the students gathered at the high school for a 7:15 a.m. departure. Upon arrival at Ocean City, everyone piled off the bus and dashed for the beach. There they spent the day sunning and swimming. Others soon discovered that there was fun on the boardwalk, where they spent their time visiting the shops and theatres. Finally it was one weary group that boarded the bus homeward bound; sunburned, exhausted, and happy.



EXCHANGE STUDENTS

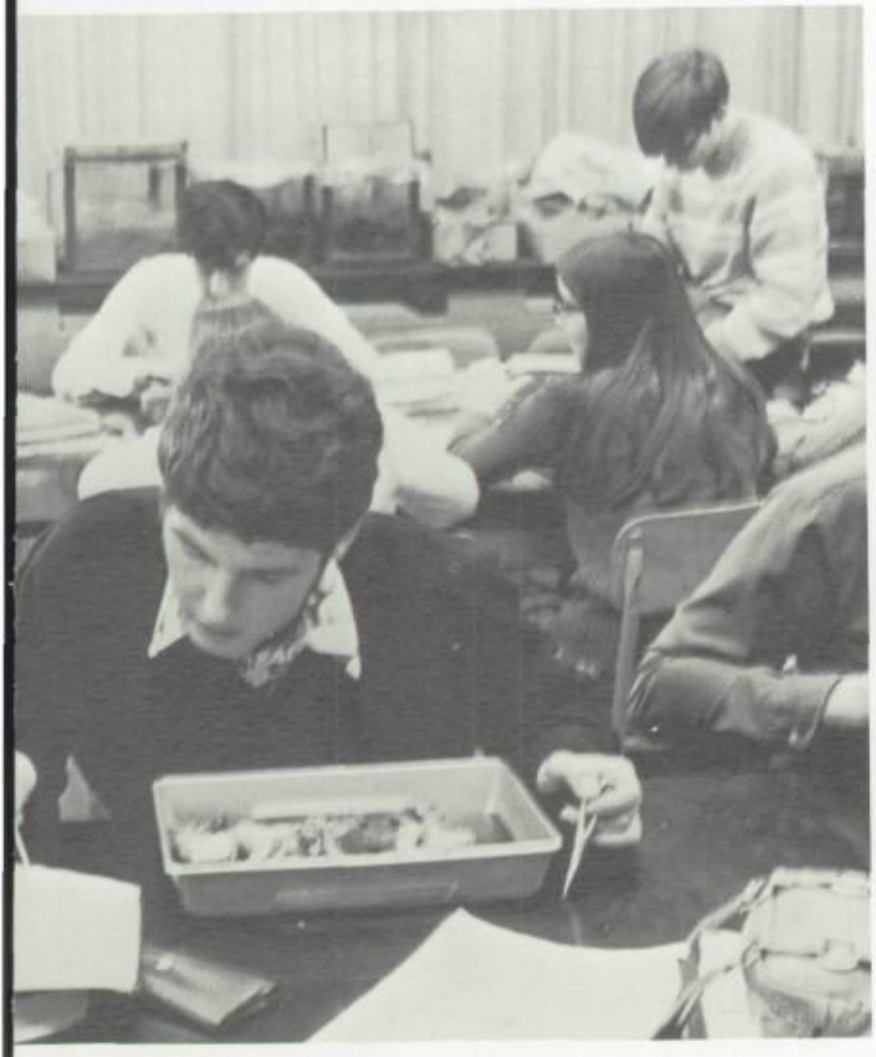
NAHS Hosts Taiwan And Switzerland

Kou-Mei Chuang, the Rotary Club sponsored exchange student from the Republic of China, is a native of Taipi, Taiwan. Her hometown is a large, crowded city and also the capital of Free China. She is presently residing with the Richards family in Stockertown.

Kou-Mei attended the first girl high school in Taipi, which has a student body consisting of 5,000 girls. In order to be accepted to the school, a girl must pass the required entrance exam. Each girl who is accepted must wear the school uniform. Most of the classes are held in one room. Between classes they have a 10 to 15 minute break and an hour and fifty minutes break for lunch.

"The language comes fairly easy to me except that there are so many new words," said Kou-Mei when asked about English.

Although she has no definite plans for the future, Kou-Mei's goal is to do something for her country and the entire world.



Konrad Reuger, born in Bern, Switzerland, has been a resident of Granichan for the past five years. Bound for university study after his year-long stay here, Konrad has already completed a year and a half of preparatory work at a school in Aarau. Presently he is residing with the Edward Karch family of Nazareth.

Being a tri-lingual exchange student, he is proficient in German, French, and English. He explained that in his native land only nine years of formal education are required. Upon completion of the last term, a student is allowed to choose between entering a trade or continuing his studies; a standard examination is taken following the latter course. Capability in high school studies, actually comparable to pre-requisite courses in American colleges, is again tested after three years.

Konrad enjoys attending dances and the theater and also participating in school sports. He hopes to enter the dental profession, in which he can use both his mental abilities as well as his manual skills.

Konrad resided with Kaj Karch and his family during his stay with us.

CURRICULUM

In any classroom situation
two factors are necessary in order for learning to occur –
a good teacher and a perceptive student. This year teacher and pupil had the extra task of overcoming the noises, odors, and distractions of construction.
In a short time everyone became accustomed to the

Herbert F. Cobley Steers Expansion

Our qualified administrators of the Nazareth Area School District are deeply concerned with the improvement of our education.

Herbert F. Cobley, who has been the superintendent of schools for the past fifteen years, carries out all executive decisions made by the Board of Education. The responsiblity of directing all operations on all school levels rests on his shoulders. During the year, Mr. Cobley has many engagements to speak on the subject of our school policies and programs.

Wilfred J. Sheetz, business manager of the Nazareth Area School District, is under the direction of the superintendent of schools. His main job is to oversee the school finances and prepare the annual budget.

School psychologist Broni G. Krisukas, who makes both home and school visits, is responsible for the emotional welfare of our students.

Our guidance counselors, Marlyn Roth and Robert Reichard, help students in securing occupational placement and suitable colleges. They also supervise the testing program throughout our school year.

BUSINESS EDUCATION

Business Department Chairman Retires

Successful secretaries are tactful, loyal, dependable, and pleasant. She should have a general knowledge of stenography, bookkeeping, typing, and office machines.

Shorthand students are required to transcribe their notes with accuracy. One should have a thorough understanding of grammar, punctuation and spelling. The stenographer must be able to transcribe notes on the typewriter.

Record keeping is an insight into bookkeeping. Bookkeeping 1 is the basis upon which you build your accounting career.

Not only must a secretary have good abilities to produce acceptable material but she must also have the ability to converse freely with others. In this way, friendly relations are created between everyone.

ENGLISH

Foundations Of Our Language

In a world where men are landing on the moon, where human hearts are finding second lives, and where the Republican is once more making its appearance into the spotlight, one's ability to communicate with his fellowman has become an increasingly important quality. In the field of communication one must remember the skills of listening, speaking, and writing. These skills are broadened through the interpretation of lectures, through public speaking, and through the construction of themes.

English Students' Roles Are Vital

As students in our high school, the principle motive of the English Department is to prepare the students for the challenges of a fast-moving society. As sophomores, grammar became a heavily-stressed subject with a touch of literature emphasizing the writings of Shakespeare and Dickens. In our junior year, we concentrated on American literature, and as seniors finished our school careers with the study of English literature and the writing of compositions.

Sophomores have an opportunity to use their books as a means of refreshing their memory. For study purposes, the student takes notes as a means with which he can reflect the ideas of the class discussions.

FOREIGN LANGUAGES AND LIBRARY

Human Communication Is Necessary

Every person should be able to speak, read, and write his own language fluently, and, in addition, the language of another country. Nazareth Area Senior High School offers courses in German and French.

German I, II, III, and IV, taught by Mrs. Ruth McGonigle and Mrs. Janice Lewis, cover grammar, literature, and culture. In German IV the students are assigned compositions to be written entirely in German. A novellette which is written in the German language is also read.

French I covers grammar. French II is a continuation of grammar with a beginning knowledge of culture. French III covers literature, mostly plays and novels, French IV, spoken completely in French, provides the study of the French culture and literature.

Nazareth Area Senior High School's library offers many sources of reference materials and also books that are read for the students' enjoyment. Miss Frances Cercek, assisted by Mrs. Ruth Anderson, provides helpful advice on any problem that students may encounter when using the library.

HEALTH AND PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Cooperation Builds Self-Confidence

Our physical education classes of 1970 and 1971 are very limited in their activities. The construction work has transferred the classes in the gym to the stage area and out doors. The main objective of health classes is learning the function and care of our body and establishing good living habits. In gym classes good sportsmanship and cooperation are as important as keeping fit.

DRIVER EDUCATION

Learning and using correct driving techniques are necessary to all students.

Our driver education course includes six hours of actual driving experience and thirty hours of classroom instruction. Activities consist of films and outside speakers.

Science Is The Key To Progress

There is an increasing need in today's society for the scientifically-minded student. Each day newspapers blurt out the discovery of a new medicine or product. Nazareth Area Senior High School tries to spark an interest in the technological field by providing a basic understanding of sciences. For the science student courses in biology, chemistry, earth and space science, and physics are offered.

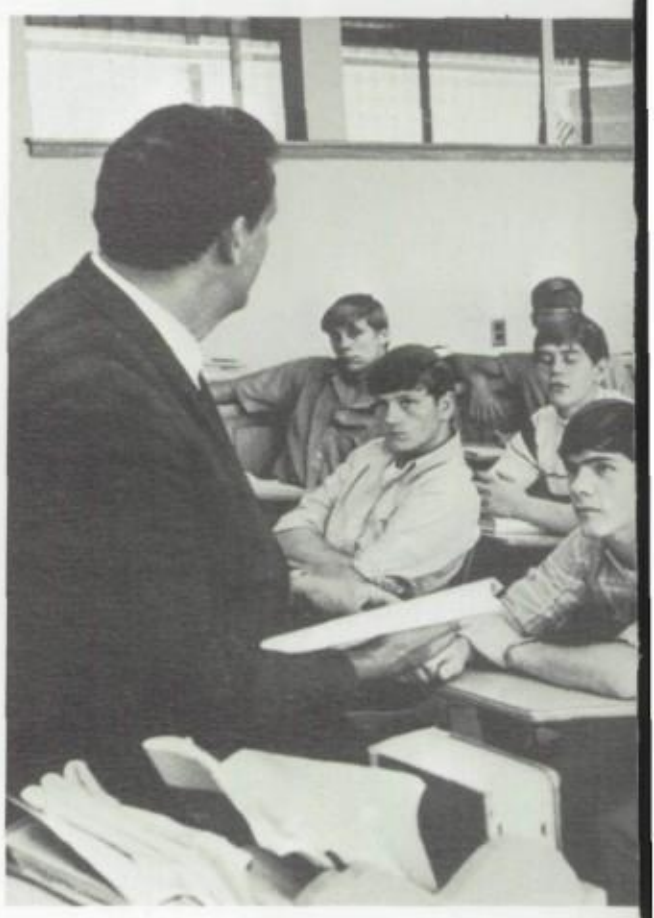
Contemplation And Calculation

There is a need for math in every facet of today's life. Every profession requires some knowledge of math. This is provided by our school's math classes. There are courses in geometry, algebra, trigonometry, business math, advanced math, and calculus. Each student must have at least one credit in math.



Jean Shook, along with her fellow students, contemplates trigonometry concepts. Trigonometry provides a basis for calculus.

SOCIAL STUDIES

Finding Solutions To Social Problems

In this age of conflict and constant change it is necessary for today's youths, as tomorrow's leaders, to understand the world they live in. As inheritors of today's problems, students must be aware and assume responsibility.

In our social studies courses students learn about the government and cultures of other countries and how they affect the lives of Americans. Through understanding we can establish better relations throughout the world. Emphasis is placed on the fact that history repeats itself – we learn from past experience. The problems of today's world and the operation of our court are discussed in depth. Students are made aware of the responsibilities awaiting them in the future.

Vo-Tech School Trains For Employment

Vocational-Technical School of Eastern Northampton County offers students opportunities to develop both skills as well as the attitudes that will be useful for successful employment. Students take a vocational-technical program for a half day in Forks. Required academic subjects in our high school building are mandatory and are taken the other half of the day.

There are many different courses which are offered and studied by the students. Several fields are mechanics, electronics, masonary, business management, carpentry, printing, cosmetology, and data processing. Distributive Education students spent part of their day working at a job in their skilled areas instead of attending vocational classes.

DISTRICT XI DOUBLES CHAMPIONS – Carey Hawk and William Liming

BASEBALL

Nazareth Captures 2nd Divisional Title

Exceptional pitching, hitting and disastrous weather conditions prevailed as the 1970 baseball team compiled a 10-2 record for the season. This respectable record won for the team their second straight Northern Division title and a chance at the league title. Unfortunately, the unit fell short of this last goal.

After two pre-season wins over Wilson, Hellertown and Bangor played the villain role and defeated the Big Blue 9-2 and 4-0 respectively. Bouncing back from these setbacks, the team rebounded with 8 consecutive wins but lost the finale to Pleasant Valley 3-2 in extra innings.

May 26, 1970, set the stage for the LNL championship against Hellertown, Southern Division Champions, at Coplay Municipal Stadium. Nazareth, under the supervision of Coach John Roanoke and Coach Barry Boyer, showed great improvement from their first meeting with Hellertown, but lost 1-0. This still won for the Eagles a second consecutive division title and back-to-back good seasons.

GOLF, 1970

Paukovitch Wins First Flight In League Play

Golf, a relatively new sport in Nazareth sports circles, had six seniors and three juniors post a 4-3 record. Nazareth defeated Solehi 9-6, edged Wilson 8-7, lost to Parkland 14-1. Another loss went to Pen Argyl 12-3. The Eagles golfers came back and beat Salisbury 8½-6½ and East Stroudsburg 8-7 but lost to Pocono Mountain 9-6.

Scott Paukovitch won the first flight of the league play but failed to make it to the finals. In 1971, the team will have promising figures in Mark Parseghian, Randy Heiserman, and Michael Shive, and hope to complete a successful season.

After disappointing 4-2 loss to Liberty, the agles came back to beat Parkland 4-1. ollowing a 3-3 deadlock with Palmer- on, Nazareth whipped Whitehall 6-0 ut again tied 3-3 with Freedom. The lue Eagles faced back-to-back losses o Emmaus and William Allen. From there to the end of the season, Nazareth rotated wins and losses. They beat Stroudsburg 4-2, lost to Phillipsburg 6-0, shut out Wilson 6-0, lost to Easton 4-2, and ended the season with a 4-2 victory at Reading.

Carey Hawk and William Liming made a very fine showing in capturing the District XI Doubles Championship. The duo whipped Bangor with identical 6-0 victories. Liberty proved to be a tough opponent, but not tough enough for Carey and Bill. They lost the first set 6-2, but came back with two 6-2 wins to take second place. The Emmaus match proved decisive in favor of the Nazareth pair. They won the match in three sets with 6-2, 2-6, 6-2 scores.

These records represented the outstanding efforts of the 1970 track team.

Carl Huff State Pole Vault Champ

Nazareth began the season with four consecutive wins over East Stroudsburg, Salisbury, Pen Argyl, and Palisades. After a disappointing loss to Hellertown, the Eagles trounced Pocono Mountain 72-32. Losing to league champions Parkland did not diminish their spirit, as Nazareth finished off the season with three straight wins over Whitehall, Bangor, and Wilson.

At the league meet, Nazareth made an excellent showing, but failed to surpass Parkland. The Eagles finished first in two events – the mile relay consisting of Tom Kolessar, Craig Hunt, Bruce Shorkey, and George Mucha, and the pole vault, where Carlton Huff cleared 12'6". There were four second place finishes – George Mucha in the 100 and 200-yard dash, Craig Hunt in the 880-yard run, and Tom Starner in the mile.

PROM

"Spirits In The Sky" Sets Prom Mood

"Spirits in the Sky," the theme for the 1970 Junior-Senior Prom, induced an atmosphere of romance and gaiety. On the night of May 23, the high school gym was transformed into a heavenly paradise complete with clouds. The appealing decorations depicted the theme of the Prom.

Sponsoring the gala event, the junior class provided the theme decorations and entertainment. There were six committees headed by Bryan Scott, who originated the theme and constructed the centerpiece. Other chairmen of the prom committees were Sandra Siegfried in charge of the east wall, the stage, and the program; Dean Brodt in charge of the lobby; Carol Dech in charge of the north and south walls; Deborah Stevens in charge of tables; and Lois Mengel in charge of the west wall.

There was an anxious moment preceding the selection of the court and the crowning of the Queen. Brenda Yuhasz was crowned Queen by Terry Soffera, junior class president. Dancing resumed amid a flourish of flowing gowns and fragrant bouquets.

At midnight, the happy but exhausted couples piled into their cars to await the police escort to Hotel Easton. Everyone enjoyed dancing to the rock sound of the Projected Mood. At four o'clock everyone trudged wearily to their cars to head back to the school where each went his own way.

PROM

Hotel Easton Is Post-Prom Site

The last social event of the year was the Junior-Senior Prom, sponsored by the junior class.

Couples danced in the high school gym until midnight. Then the worn-out couples piled into their cars and patiently awaited the escort to the Easton Hotel. There the couples dined on roast beef, scalloped potatoes, buttered corn, and last, but not least, parfaits for dessert.

Following the meal, the couples relaxed and danced to the rock music of the Projected Mood. At four o'clock, everyone returned to Nazareth, exhausted, but happy.

CHEERLEADERS

Spirit And Soul Is Favorite Cheer

Enthusiastic cheerleaders led the Eagle fans in hundreds of cheers throughout the 1970-71 school year. Pep rallies were limited due to the lack of space in the auditorium. The cheerleaders helped organize homecoming activities and planned original skits. Members of the varsity teams were involved in many of the skits.

Throughout the year, the cheerleaders supported the football, basketball, and wrestling teams. Competition cheers seemed to be the most popular among the seniors, since they were usually victorious.

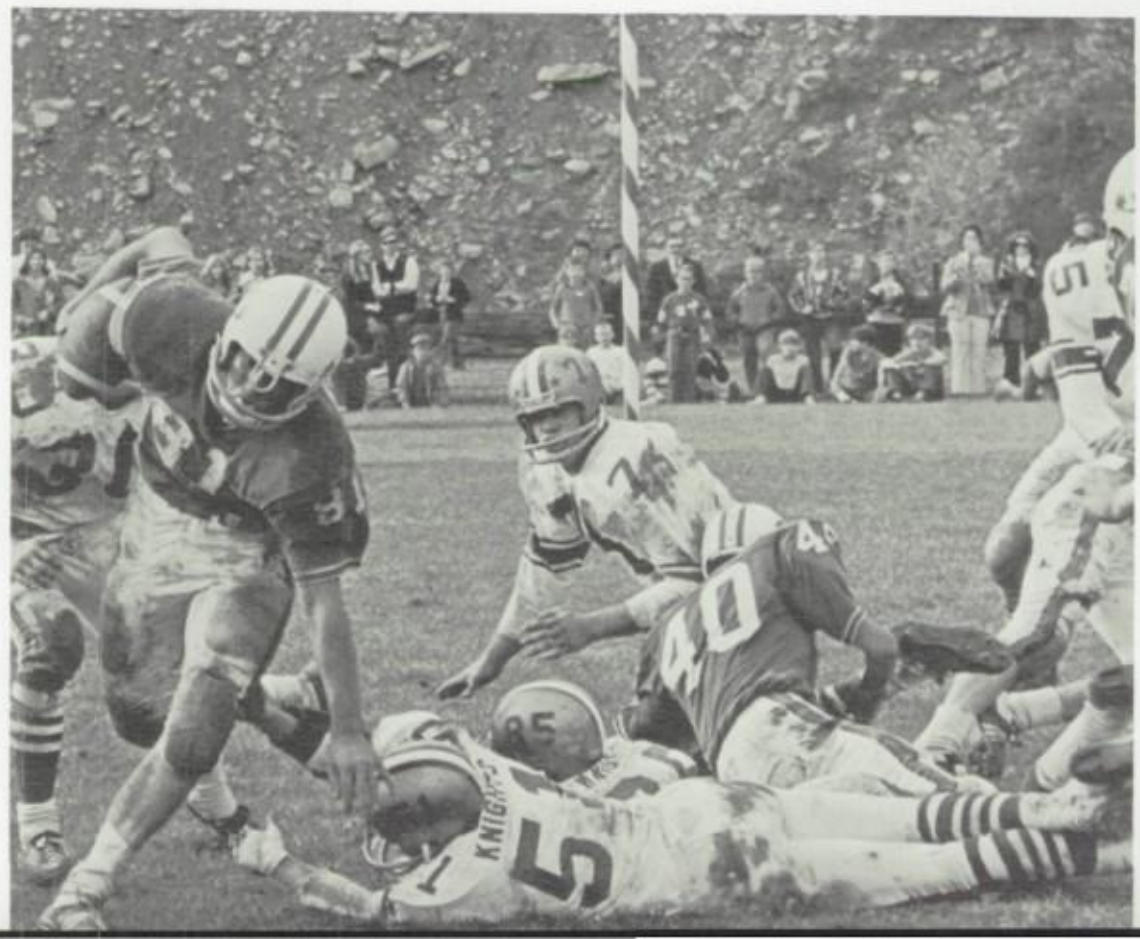
FOOTBALL

Blue Eagles Post 6-4 Record

Nazareth opened the 1970 football season against always tough Governor Mifflin with high hopes, a new quarterback, and a backfield full of ambitious juniors. Athough the Big Blue did not successfully overcome the Mustang attack, they did make a good showing in the 22-0 loss. Hellertown was the first league victory for the team, as they beat the Panthers on their field 12-6. In another nonleague game against Lehighton, the Nazareth offensive attack could not put together a successful drive and the Eagles lost their second game 18-13.

Andrew S. Leh Stadium was the setting for the team's second victory as the Eagles defeated the Zephers of Whitehall 34-0 before a victory-expectant crowd. In the next two games, both Parkland and Pen Argyl grounded the Eagles as they scored 12-0 and 18-6 victories over Nazareth. But the "never say no" team of 1970 rebounded to kill the Bangor Slaters with an unbelievable offensive and defensive showing by a 32-0 victory.



Nazareth Eagles Stun Undefeated Northampton 12-8

Everyone thought that the series between Nazareth and Northampton would never again materialize, but it did — on November 6, 1970. The Konkrete Kids came on the field boasting an undefeated season that night, while our Blue Eagles, confident after their last victory, were 3-4. After the 48 minutes of the game were over, our team had scored an astounding 12-8 victory over the future LVL champions.

Nazareth battled the weather and a tough team in their next game against East Stroudsburg. Just as in the game previously, however, Nazareth proved to be the better team, beating the Cavaliers 13-6. The season's finale was at Taylor Stadium in Bethlehem, where the psyched Big Blue met the Warriors of Wilson, with Wilson still in contention for the league championship. Only one minute into the game, Nazareth blocked a Wilson punt, recovered it in the end zone, and put on a final offensive and defensive attack to beat the Warriors and thus eliminate them from the championship race.

Altogether, the Blue Eagles posted a 6-4 record and had defeated insurmountable teams. The coaches and the whole community look forward to next year when experience and enthusiasm will lead the team to the League title and begin another "Year of the Eagle."

With great determination and spirit, the girls finished the season with 4 wins, 4 losses, and 3 ties. The junior varsity squad proved promising for next year. They had 4 wins, 1 loss, and 4 ties.

As each game was played, the girls gained valuable knowledge and experience to help them prepare for the next game. The team finished fifth in the Lehigh-Northampton League.

J.V.'s Compile 14-6 Record

Nazareth started the season with three consecutive wins over Stroud Union, 67-59; Lehighton, 52-51; and Pocono Mountain 72-70. The Blue Eagles lost their next two games to Catasauqua and Emmaus. Following a 61-51 win over Whitehall, the Eagles lost to Freedom and Salisburg 81-44 and 78-43, respectively. After beating Hellertown 70-66, the team lost the next three consecutive games. Bangor and Wilson pulled out squeakers 67-65 and 56-55, while Parkland triumphed 63-37.

Victories were not in the record books, for the remainder of the season was a total loss. The Eagles won only two of their final eight games. After beating Pen Argyl 69-59, Nazareth lost four straight games to East Stroudsburg, Hellertown, Bangor, and Parkland. Luck changed for our Eagles as they trounced Wilson 73-58. Pen Argyl and East Stroudsburg proved too tough for the mighty Eagles, as they ended the season with back to back losses 60-55 and 64-40 respectively, and a 7-13 record.

Our Junior Varsity team had a more successful season, finishing with a 14-6 record. They lost only two games during regular season play, both to Parkland. In non-league action, the J.V.'s were not quite so successful with a record of 4-4.

Track, Gymnastics Broaden Competition

Nazareth Area Senior High School had a girl's track team which participated in two meets. The first meet was held in East Stroudsburg with Pocono Mountain, Pen Argyl, Nazareth, East Stroudsburg, and Bangor. The Nazareth girls were victorious. The second meet was held with Pen Argyl, and again the Nazareth girls came out top in scoring.

Some of the main events were the 50 and 100 yard dash, the 220 and 440 yard run, two relays, the long jump, high jump, and the discus throw.

Many attempts at the high jump were unsuccessful, but everyone kept trying.

Eaglettes Place Second In League

This year has been one of the most challenging seasons ever experienced by the Girls' Basketball team at Nazareth Area Senior High School. Coached by Sandra Shindel, and led by co-captains, Patti Bortz and Becky Hess, the girls won seven of the ten league games. They ended the season with a 9-3 record to finish second in Lehigh-Northampton League Northern Division.

This year's team found themselves without a home court. The girls practiced at Floyd R. Schafer Elementary School. They played all home games at Holy Family Gym. With this disadvantage, the girls only lost one home game.

Highlighting the season were the two victories over the Southern-Division Champs, Wilson. The last game with Wilson, we had men officials for the first time.

Grapplers, Place 10-3-1 Record

Wrestling, the oldest sport in history, has gradually found its way in Nazareth as one of the most popular spectator sports. With a temporary home in Holy Family gymnasium, the grapplers posted a 10-3-1 record, good for a tie for second place, and gave the enthusiastic fans a real show for their money.

In the opening match against Southern Lehigh, Coach Nunamaker's gang showed everyone that they were once again in the race for LNL champions as they whipped the Spartans 38-9. In the next match against ever-tough Phillipsburg, the Eagles put up a good showing but lost 25-16. They came back and beat East Stroudsburg 39-13 but against Easton the team lost 21-15 with the final outcome uncertain until the last match. From that point on the Eagles poured it on and showed brute strength as they destroyed six teams in a row. Nazareth overpowered Pen Argyl 39-12, surprised Northampton 39-9, whitewashed Bangor 52-0, beat tough Parkland 41-9, and trounced Palisades 49-6.

After a real heart-pounding tie with Wilson, 20-20, the Eagles lost to eventual champion Hellertown 24-12. The Eagles rebounded and won their final two outings, beating Northwestern 39-9 and tripping Pocono Mountain 31-11.

Even though the Blue Eagles had three league winners, we failed to send anyone through districts. Both Coach Nunamaker and Coach Lewis are looking forward to another successful year with new teams being added to the schedule.

Nazareth Loses Bid For League Title

Nazareth began its third season under Coach John Roanoke with a defeat. Although the Blue Eagles lost to Northampton, 9-8, they never gave up. Replacing seven seniors for seniors from last year's team, the Eagles captured its third Northern Division title. Southern Lehigh proved too tough for Nazareth as they shut out the Blue Eagles, 1-0. Hellertown, who later defeated the Blue Eagles in their bid for the league title, out played Nazareth in a 3-2 victory.

Nazareth started its league season with a 5-2 victory over Pleasant Valley. A last inning rally by the Blue Eagles gave them a 3-2 upset over Bangor. With a 2-0 record in the league, the Eagles trounced Pocono Mountain, 10-2. The Eagles traveled to Pen Argyl only to be defeated 9-4. Nazareth was now tied for the league with their opponent, East Stroudsburg. They easily defeated the Cavaliers, 6-2.

Starting its second half, the Blue Eagles defeated Pleasant Valley 6-5, and lost to Bangor 2-0. This loss put the Eagles "back in the pack." Back-to-back victories over Pocono Mountain and Pen Argyle again put Nazareth in a tie for first place with their last opponent, East Stroudsburg. Another last inning rally gave the Blue Eagles a 4-3 win and their third straight Northern Division title.

Nazareth and Hellertown have an old story at Copley, at least for the last three years. Although they have competed against us for three years, the outcome has been the same. The Panthers took an early lead which the Eagles could never overcome. Hellertown won the game, 5-2, and their third straight league title.

Without the help of the weatherman, the 1971 thinclads posted a 5-5 season. Cold weather and rain prevailed throughout the year, as was evident in the season opener against Whitehall. Although it rained, and rained heavily, the Blue Eagles sloshed their way to a 90-23 victory.

This victory was followed by two losses, a surprise loss to Bangor 70-52 and a heartbreak loss to East Stroudsburg 62-60. The Blue Eagles rebounded with three victories in a row: a 63-59 win over Salisburg, a landslide victory over Pen Argyl, 89-33, and a fractional victory over Palisades, 65½-56½.

Tide reversed again and two losses followed. Hellertown clobbered the cindermen 89-33, and Wilson got by 66-56. The Eagles almost froze at Pocono Mountain, but still came out to beat the Cardinals. The finale had Parkland, eventual League champions, beating the Eagles 75-47.

Golfers End With Disappointing Year

This year's Blue Eagle golf team posted a 3-6 season. Faced with stiff competition, bad weather, and a young team, Nazareth showed great potential. The Eagles won the first match which was an overwhelming victory over Pocono Mountain 11½-3½. The matches became closer and closer in score as the Blue Eagles won back-to-back victories over Pen Argyl and Bangor 8½-6½ and 8-7 respectively.

For the rest of the season, Nazareth posted an 0-6 record. They lost each match by at least four points and at most fourteen. Parkland stopped the Blue Eagles winning streak of three by a 14½-½ victory. Salisbury, East Stroudsburg, Southern Lehing, Saucon Valley, and Wilson followed with 10½-4½, 9½-5½, 13-2, 12½-2½, and 10-5 victories.

After an opening loss to Liberty 5-1, the 1971 Tennis team posted a 5-5-1 record during the season. Following the first defeat, the Blue Eagle netters rebounded to beat Dieruff 4-2 on their court.

After the tie with Stroudsburg, the Blue Eagles lost three in a row: 5-1 to Parkland, 6-0 against Allen, and 4-2 to Freedom. Three victories followed as the team beat Easton 5-1, Bethlehem Catholic 5-1, and Whitehall 5-1. Phillipsburg beat the Nazareth netters on our courts 6-0, and we won the finale 4-2 over Palmerton.

With the loss of only one member through graduation, a successful season will be expected in 1972.

Even with the building under construction, social events
remained in full swing.
A few activities were relocated;
but aside from that, everything was conducted normally. Plays, concerts, dances, competitions, pep rallies, hoagie sales were as numerous as ever.

What can happen during a

Drama Club Presents "Up The Down Staircase"

"Up the Down Staircase" was presented by the NASHS Drama Club, consisting of students from all three grades. The play is a dramatization of the present day school situation such as those which exist at Calvin Coolidge High School in New York City.

The Stage Left Players, as the club is also known, performed on March 26, and 27, 1971, in the F. A. Marcks Building Auditorium.

Sylvia Barrett, portrayed by Sandra Siegfried, attempted to show students the way of learning. She tried to "reform" Joe Ferone, a delinquent student.

The entire staff of Calvin Coolidge High School, with the exception of Miss Barrett, was interested only in themselves and not the benefit of the students.

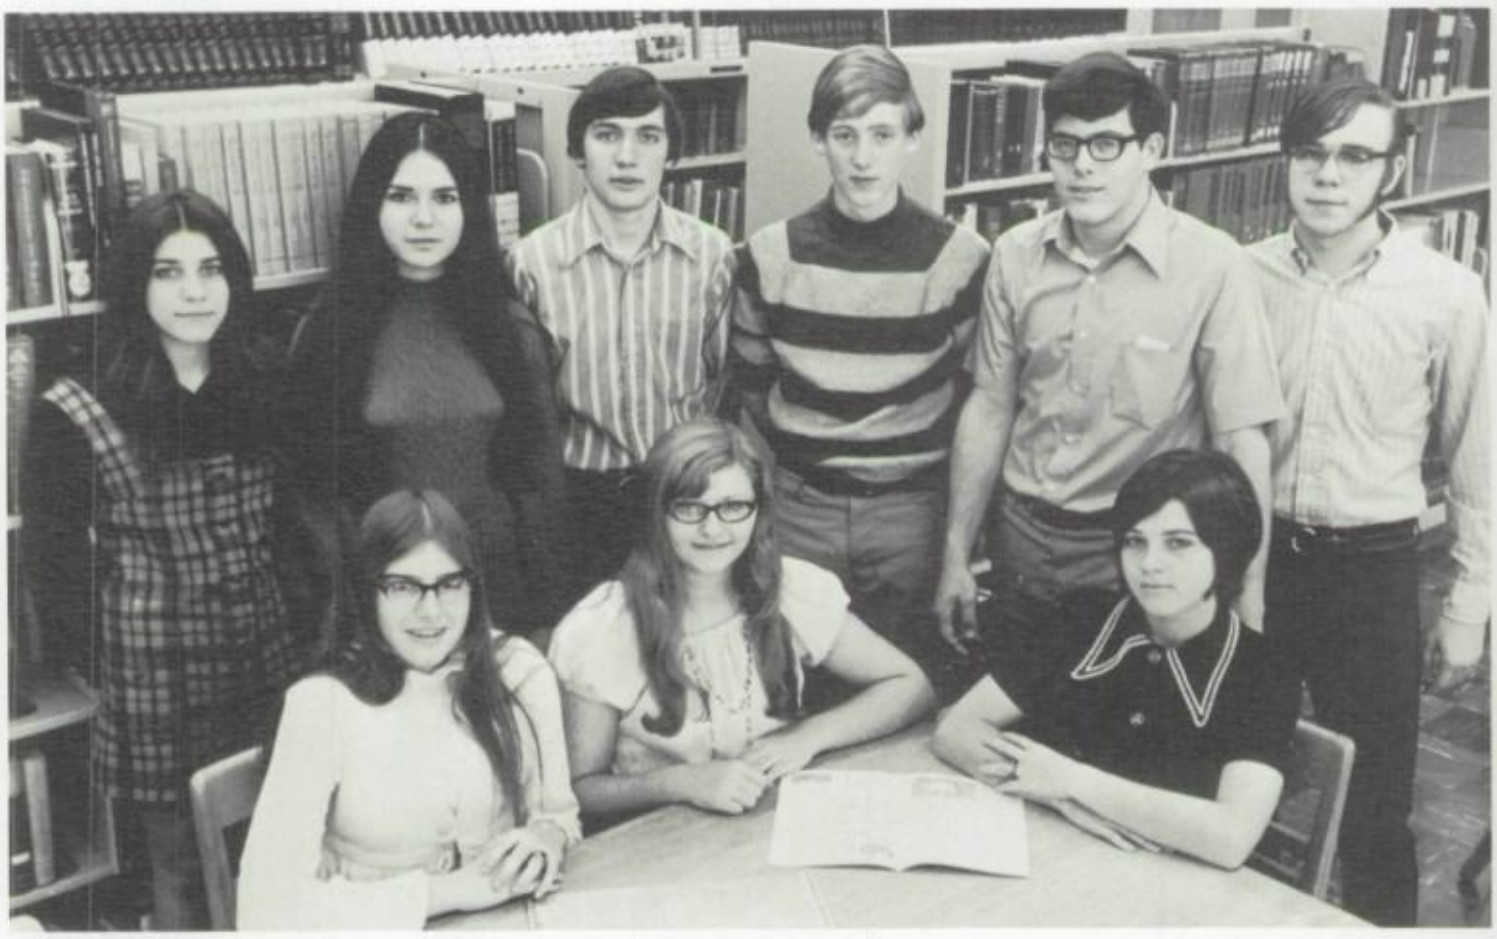
NEWSPAPER

Staff Produces Exciting Newspaper

This year the newspaper staff is composed of eight editors and twenty-nine staff members, seven of whom are members of the Journalism class. Editors were elected by the staff members, something unprecedented since the change in the format of the newspaper.

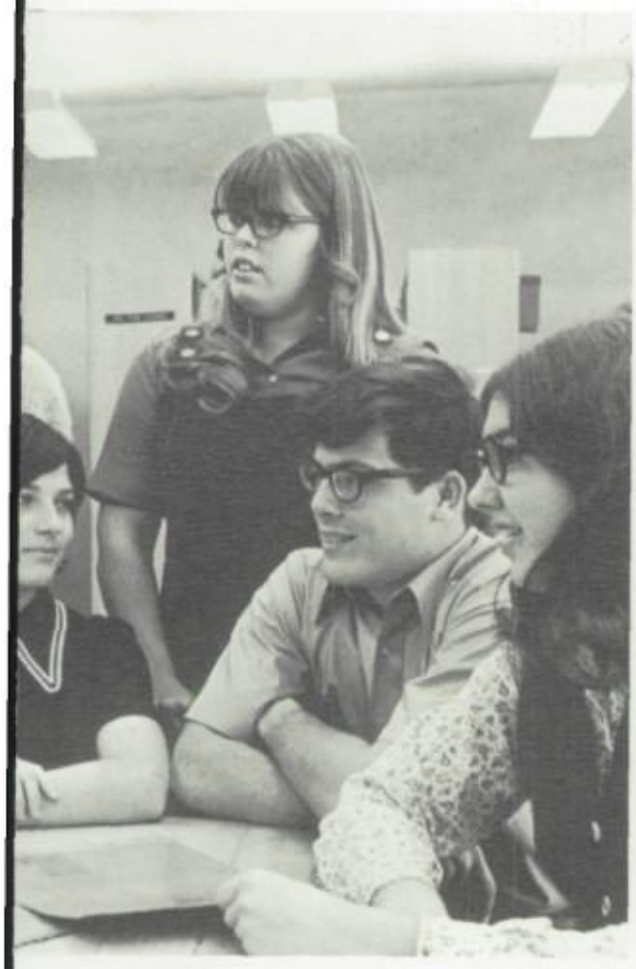
Although the newspaper is printed in connection with the Vocational-Technical school, the Journalism class contributes greatly to the over-all production of the Blue and White Standard. The members of the staff are responsible for the article assignments, composition of newspaper pieces, article proofreading, and lay-out. The other members of the staff contribute similarly, but are responsible mainly for research, interviews, and the general accumulation of articles.

Responsibility for publishing a timely newspaper, making up assignments and leading the respective staff are the duties of the Editors. The Editor-in-Chief directs all other staff members.



ABOVE: Sports Reporters, who need knowledge of sports and fans and enthusiasm for athletics give accounts of team and individual efforts on the field and on the floor. Typing, art, paste-up and circulation are the responsibilities of the Business Staff.

RIGHT: Students on the News Staff gather facts of timely events and are responsible for the composition and make-up of at least the first two pages.



Feature Staff members find the unusual in the usual and use vivid imagination to create informative and entertaining articles to interest most readers.

Exchange of ideas and helpful advice were important factors in the planning of each page. Mrs. Kolessar and Mr. Schmoyer willingly offered their assistance whenever necessary.

Dave Maurek offers Donnie Keller his opinion on the choice of a picture for the sports section. Other staff members work on their individually assigned sections.

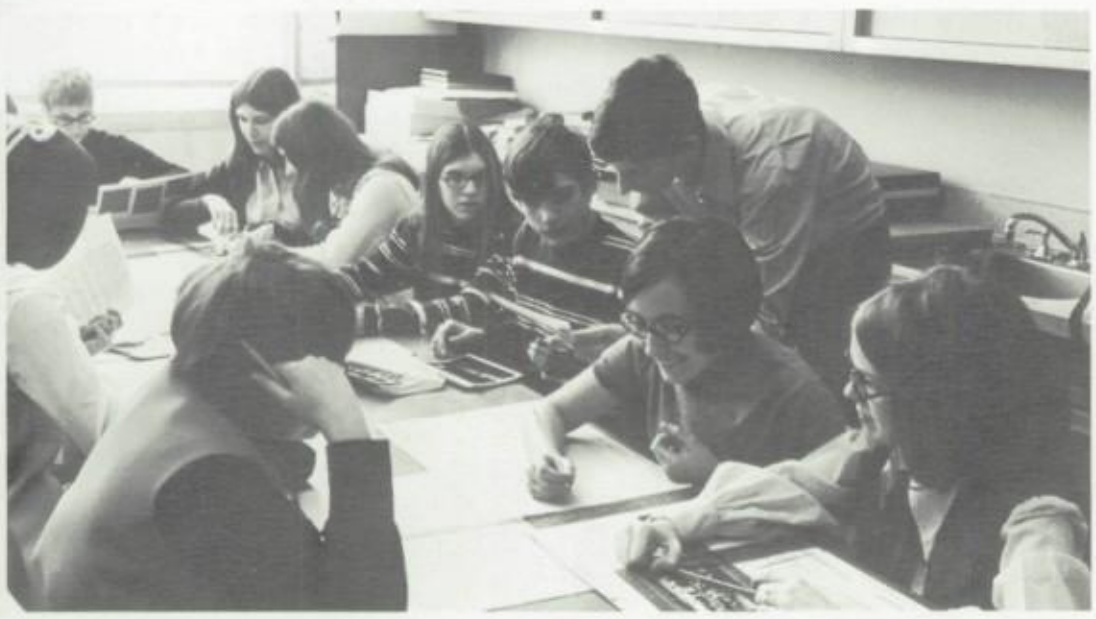
First Year For August Delivery

One of the major decisions of the Comet Staff involved the date of the book's delivery. By extending the time the staff was able to include all the activities of the present school year as well as those from the spring of 1970. Additional events included the spring sports of 1971, the 1971 prom, the senior class trip and graduation.

Members of the staff and its advisors, Mrs. Kolessar and Mr. Schmoyer, shared times of hard work as well as moments of friendly conversation. September proved to be the start of a long involved process to prepare the book for final publication. A cover was chosen and work began on layouts. An abundance of pictures was available, especially of sports, and it was up to the staff to choose which ones would be needed for the final layout. The longest and hardest job was the writing of captions and copy. Expressing the necessary information took much concentration and revision.



TOP: Drawing a well-balanced layout is one of the first steps in creating a yearbook. Each spread must have a proportionate amount of white space, gray space, and black space.

NAHS Choirs Led By William Hamilton

Under the direction of William Hamilton, the choirs of Nazareth Area Senior High School performed concerts throughout the year. The members of the A Cappella Choir are juniors and seniors who are interested in vocal music. The Treble Singers are girls in grades ten, eleven, and twelve who also have an interest in music. District Chorus members are chosen from hundreds of students from schools in the district.

Throughout the school year the choirs performed several concerts for the public. The main performances were the Christmas Concert and the Spring Concert which was entitled "While We're Young." In each of these, all the choirs and various smaller groups shared the spotlight.

Spring Choral Concert – Varying Moods

With snow still on the ground, the choral groups began preparing for the annual Spring Concert. Warm ups, vocal drills, and sight reading became a routine part of each choral member's life. By April 23, tension was high and nerves were raw from the months of intensive rehearsal.

Then on the evenings of April 23 and 24, all pressure broke loose during the two performances of the theme, "While We're Young." To keep the entertainment varied, the music was taken from a time period of 1600-1970. As another means of change, groups ranging in size from 4 to 70 persons performed everything from a rollicking square dance to a sober, righteous prohibition tune.

Jocelyn Sours Chosen Queen Of '71 Prom

On the evening of June 4, our seniors, juniors, pages and their guests, entered Hotel Bethlehem for a new version of Nazareth Area Senior High School's junior-senior prom. In a ballroom decorated to the theme "Knights in White Satin," the couples dined by candlelight. After dinner, dance music was provided by "The Crowd," a group of Lafayette College students.

At midnight, a sealed envelope was opened and everyone gathered to see the queen and her court. Forrest Noll, junior class president, crowned Jocelyn Sours as queen, who was presented with a bouquet of red roses by junior class vice president Len Messinger. Rose Mack, Patti Bortz, April Hoadley, and Sharon Konra, members of the court, also received colorful bouquets.

Band Takes Third Place InCompetition

Because of its high spirit, ability, and hard work, the Nazareth Area High School Marching Band, under the direction of Augustine Weinhofer, won a third-place award in their first competition in some years. On September 30, 1970, the band boarded the buses and journeyed to Allentown Stadium.

All ten bands were judged critically on their appearance, marching ability, playing ability, difficulty of the routine, and overall effectiveness of the routine.

Everyone's nerves were tense until the awards were announced. Although much patience had been stretched tauntly during the many weeks of practice, the band was well pleased with its accomplishment. As a result of their third-place award, the band was invited to participate in competition at Harrisburg. However, weather conditions cancelled all rehearsals making the Harrisburg trip impossible.

MAJORETTES AND COLOR GUARD

Practice Creates Precision Routines

To create their numerous routines, the majorettes and color guards began practice sessions in mid-summer. Besides practicing as separate groups, they also drilled two days a week with the entire band. Their efforts were well rewarded, however, when the majorettes won a third place in a competition at Allentown Stadium, and when the majorettes and color guards, as a part of the Nazareth Area High Marching Band, won third prize in the same competition.

The majorettes for next year will be Shelly Davis, Karen Dupsick, Janice Florey, Linda Guest, Nancy Hess, Sally Hunt, Janet Keen, Cindy Kuhns, Wendy Mann, Debbie Marchak, Anne Noversel, Connie Pierog, Nancy Spangler, Barbara Siegfried, Kathy Yandrisevits, and substitutes Jonice Knecht, Ann Malitsch, Diane Stoudt, and Gail Wagner.

The color guards for next year will be Frances Klepeisz, Shelly Winters, Holly Sloyer, Nancy Butz, Monica Klepeisz, Anne Sours, Marie Traupman, Nancy Jensolowsky, Annette Gower, Cindy Muth, and substitute Gayle Hoffman.

Patti Bortz, head majorette, and Helen Jensolowsky, captain of the color guard, with the help of their respective group members, have worked hard during the past year to perfect old routines and to create new routines.

Homecoming Spotlights Fall Season

Homecoming weekend, celebrated on October 9 and 10, was launched by a formal assembly Friday morning. Featured speaker was Mr. Joseph Yandrisevitz, captain of the 1941 Nazareth football team. Afternoon festivities began with a hilarious variety show staged by the seniors. The audience was captivated by the senior football players as they contended in a beauty contest. The afternoon was climaxed by a spectacular pep rally unlike any other in the history of the school. Spontaneous cheering, enthusiastic spirit, and rampant behavior were demonstrated by everyone.

Patti Bortz was crowned Homecoming Queen during the dance held Friday evening in the all-purpose room of the Floyd R. Shafer Building. Her court consisted of April Hoadley, Melody George, Jennifer Morrison, and Kathleen Tanzos. Musical entertainment was provided by the "Maze."

HOMECOMING

Class Floats Spark School Spirit

Utter chaos resulted Saturday as students struggled to construct class floats, displaying outstanding school spirit, in time for the evening deadline. Activities began early as the workers gave up the luxury of sleeping late and continued furiously until late afternoon. People scattered in all directions in their frantic efforts to obtain needed materials and take care of last minute details. Finally, after a day of turmoil and frustration the finishing touches were added and the floats completed.

Saturday evening, a parade consisting of the Homecoming Queen and her court, cheerleaders, pep band, and class floats proceeded from Main Street to the Andrew S. Leh Stadium where the Eagles played host to the Parkland Trojans. Halftime began as the Nazareth High School band presented a routine climaxed by an "N" formation. Mayor Yeakel addressed the crowd and presented the Queen and her court, who were escorted in a procession of flashing convertibles and colorful class floats. Our second Homecoming had come and gone, but would remain a nostalgic memory in the minds of the students of N.H.S.

BELOW: Sophomores chose to display the future Big Blue players who will eventually assume the prestige of the varsity team. The presence of the J.V. team and cheerleaders added the finishing touch. RIGHT: Connie Kalapick and Gary Lindenmoyer M.C.'d a pep assembly consisting of a beauty contest, senior skits, and cheering. They brought humor and incentive to the students with their jokes and amusing routines.

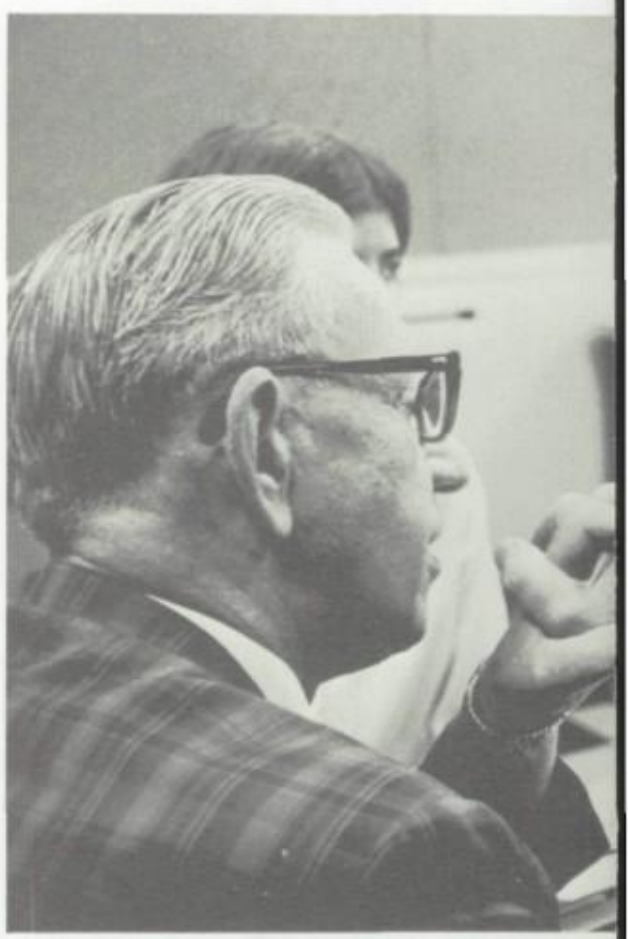
Seminars Supplement Student Interest

English Seminar, advised by J. F. Knecht, encourages interested students to study philosophies, universalities, and theories of famous writers of the past and present. It acts as an important guideline for college bound students. This course, which is open only to seniors, supplements the regular twelfth grade English class.

Material studies in seminar gives the members an inspirational insight into the values and rewards of life.



History Seminar, an informal discussion group of students and their advisor, Mrs. Miriam Zell, undertook a variety of projects this year.

A model legislature was attended in Kutztown, where the Seminar students joined specific committees, and reviewed proposed bills before accepting or rejecting them. Individual members of the Seminar did intensive research on the following question:

Should we have gun-control laws?

Is violence a justified way of gaining one's demands?

What are the problems of mixed marriages?

RETIREMENT

Mildred Metz Completes 35-Year Career

In September of 1936, after graduating from Rider College, Miss Mildred Oakes joined the faculty of the Nazareth Area Senior High School. This marked the beginning of a career which was to span 35 years of devoted service to the students of our area.

On August 2, 1941, Miss Oakes married Ralph Metz and returned to school that September as Mrs. Mildred Metz. Her personal interest in the field of bookkeeping and accounting was reflected in the thoroughness and intensity with which she instructed her pupils. Thousands of office workers in the Lehigh Valley have been influenced by Mrs. Metz's methodical habits, her demand for neat and accurate work, and above all, her interest and concern for all her students.

Her service to our school is immeasurable. Mrs. Metz served as school treasurer from 1945 to 1956. She has been advisor to the Commercial Club, the Knitting Club, and both the Junior and Senior classes. Mrs. Metz was elected as the first chairman of the Business Department in 1969.

Now as her 35 years of service and dedication comes to an end, all we can do is say "Thank you" and wish her the best of all things for the future.

Left: Mrs. Metz uses the overhead projector to explain the foremat of a Balance Sheet, stressing that Assets equal Liabilities plus Proprietorship.

COMMENCEMENT

Diplomas Awarded Graduation Night

June 17, 1971, marked the end of a twelve-year struggle for the Seniors at Nazareth Area Senior High School. It was graduation night. At 7:30 p.m. the graduating class assembled to prepare for their processional to the Andrew H. Leh Stadium where the ceremony was held. They proceeded to the traditional tune of "Pomp and Circumstance" performed by the high school band. After the invocation, the Choral sang "Requiem for the Masses," and also "Laudate Nomen Domini."

Three honored Senior girls spoke to the proud parents of the students on the theme of "The Old Order Changeth." Jennifer Morrison spoke of "Yesterday's Dreams," Cindy Rinker on "Today's Realities," and Susan Pysher on "Tomorrow's Promises."

Following the speeches, Herbert F. Cobley awarded each graduating Senior his diploma. Frederick C. Benfield, Principal, then announced the Senior Prizes awarded in the fields of art, social studies, science, bookkeeping, languages, shorthand, business, music, band, citizenship, driving, industrial arts, college or nursing scholarships, business education, senior prize writing, and the highest two ranking students in the class.

The ceremony was concluded with the benediction and the singing of the Alma Mater. Following the singing, the Seniors joyfully, yet with some sadness, slowly proceeded out of the stadium for the last time as a group.

SPECIAL STAFF

New Building Increases Custodian's Work

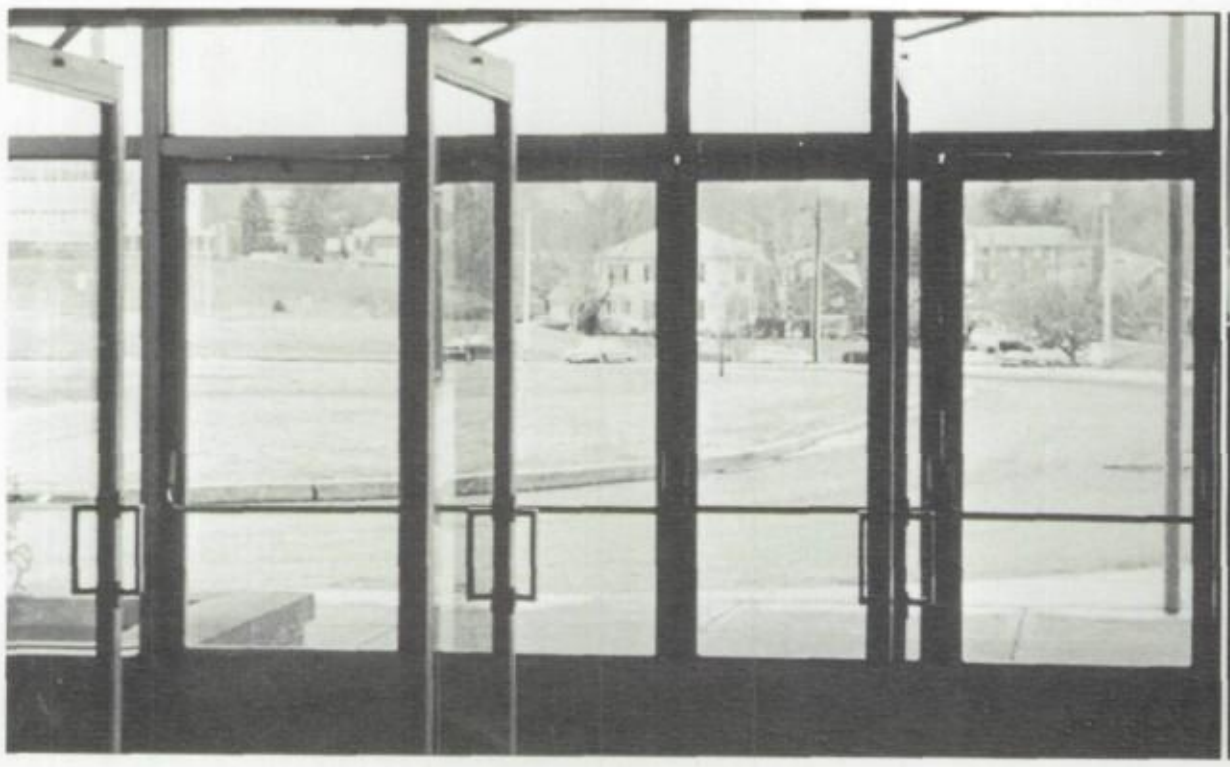
HOUSEKEEPERS MRS. MABEL WAMBOLD AND MRS. NETTIE HAHN.

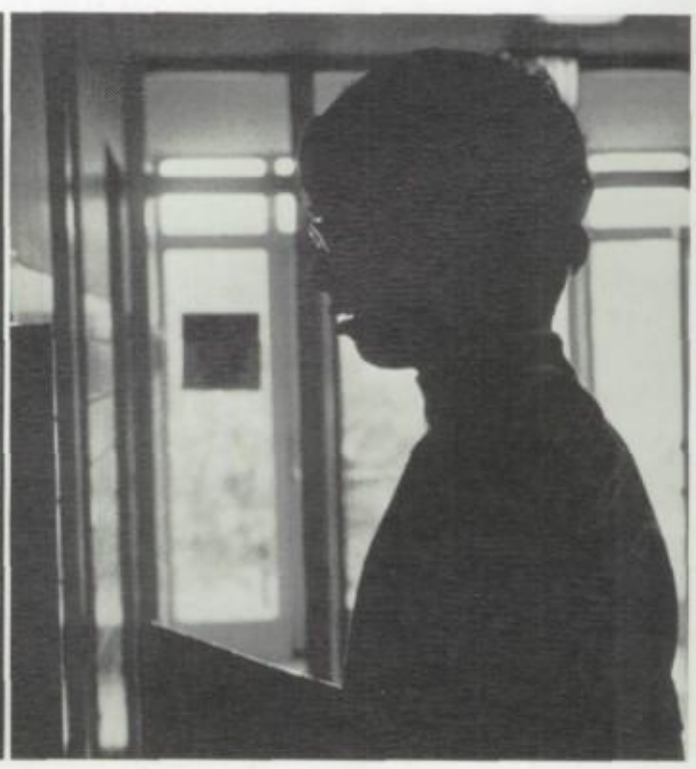
Although the school day closes at 3:20 for the students, it is only the start of a new day for the custodial staff. Our school maintains its attractive appearance only because of the diligent efforts of these conscientious men and women. Their efforts result in clear floors, repaired plumbing, sanitized rooms and lavatories, and well-kept grounds. Aside from the daily jobs of sweeping halls, dusting rooms, and emptying waste baskets, the janitors also found time to fix leaking water fountains and other odd jobs.

Due to the renovation of the school, the cafeteria was unable to be used. Students were forced to bring lunches from home and eat in the gym where temporary accommodations were made. Joan Nagle, of the cafeteria staff, sold ice cream and milk to anyone wishing to purchase it. Student council also sold various edibles.

CAFETERIA STAFF JOAN NAGLE.

ATHLETIC MANAGER DALE JOHNSON

EPILOGUE




Our last days at NAHS may slip away.
We may forget the small and unimportant events, but we will never lose the foundations which we have acquired here.
It is upon these foundations that we will build our futures.
